Mike: You live near Rochester Park, don't you, Lilly?

Lilly: Yes, we moved there two months ago. It's so quiet. We used to live in London but my mum always said that it was too noisy and that there was too much traffic.

Mike: I think she'll find Rochester Park rather noisy this summer! Does she know that there's a rock festival in August?

Lilly: Yes, she knows about the festival, but we're going away on holiday in August so we won't be kept awake by loud music. Some friends of ours from London, Robert and Emily, are going to stay in our house and go to the festival. They love rock music but they don't like camping, so they can look after our house. Perfect!

Mike: Where are you going on holiday?

Lilly: We're just going to visit my gran in Scotland. We go there every summer for a week or two. It's lovely. She lives near a beautiful lake so we can go fishing and swimming. What about you? What are you going to do this summer?

Mike: Dad says we don't have enough money for a holiday this summer because we spent too much money last year when we went to Florida. But, if I pass my exams, he's promised to take us all to the circus in Rochester Park in July.

Lilly: That sounds like fun. How much does it cost?

Mike: I haven't got a clue. I saw a poster for the circus when I was on my way home from school, but I didn't notice the cost. I love circuses! The last time I went to the circus, my mum spilt her drink all over me!

Lilly: Why? What happened?

Mike: We were watching the clowns when, suddenly, one of the clowns pretended to throw a bucket of water at Mum and it made her jump and spill her orange juice! Of course, the clown didn't have water in the bucket, just a roll of paper. It was really funny! Do you think you will go to the circus? It's very close to your house, isn't it?

Lilly: That's true, Mike, but if there are any animals performing in the circus, I won't go because I don't like circuses with animals. I don't think they look after their animals very well – they are kept in cages.

Mike: Oh dear, that's horrible! Maybe I won't go. I'll probably fail my exams anyway!
