Holidays for everyone

Since the explosion of mass market package holidays in the 60s, more and more people enjoy travelling abroad. In recent years the industry has become much more varied and today everyone can find the perfect holiday deal.

A. Rural tourism holiday

In addition to enjoying the peace and quiet of the countryside, you'll probably save money while you try the local specialties and eat in the local restaurants. But here's a warning: This isn't a good choice if you are on a diet!

B. Beach holiday

This is not my favourite kind of holiday, but perhaps the most relaxing. If you have a frenetic lifestyle at home, you might want a simple holiday where all the days follow the same routine: sun, sand and sea.

C. Adventure holiday

If, like me, you hate being ordinary, you'll love an adventure holiday. You'll test yourself and your physical fitness up mountains, on rivers or in jungles, and no day will be the same. Don't forget to bring your camera!

D. City break

These are perfect for people who love culture. You can visit galleries and museums and enjoy a great night life. Prices are often expensive, so try visiting markets instead of eating in restaurants.

E. Winter sports holiday

I'm not a fan of winter, but for many of you a sports holiday in the snow is a perfect break. You'll get fit and lose weight – and have fun! You'll love the gear, too. These holidays are all about style.

36. Which holiday might be a bad idea for people who want to save money?

- A) Adventure holiday
- B) City break
- C) Beach holiday
- D) Rural tourism holiday
